WESTLEA BETWEEN CLASSES

PINE MANOR IS A NEW ENGLAND COLLEGE

Columns, trees, crisp autumn air, bicycles and books, friendly talk between classes —
this is college in New England —
this is Pine Manor.

Pine Manor is only a half hour from Boston
by bus, train, or car.
Through college-sponsored trips or on their own,
students find it easy
to visit theaters, concerts, lectures, museums,
and points of historical interest.

ARRIVING AT A BOSTON THEATER

SYMPHONY HALL, BOSTON

Among the city's noted cultural attractions
are the Boston Symphony Orchestra,
the Museum of Fine Arts, the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum,
and the New England Opera Theater.
A number of Broadway plays
and the New York Metropolitan Opera Association
have Boston engagements.

WIDENER LIBRARY, HARVARD UNIVERSITY

. . . IN AN EDUCATIONAL CENTER

Many outstanding educational institutions,
such as Harvard, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Radcliffe, and Wellesley,
are located in the Boston area.
Young men and women from neighboring colleges
participate in activities on the campus and in turn invite Pine Manor students to their cultural and social events.

. . . IN A COLLEGE TOWN

Pine Manor is one of three colleges
situated in the attractive suburb of Wellesley.

ENGLISH

Since the ability to read and write well
is essential for success in all subjects,
the college maintains
a strong program in English.

PINE MANOR IS A TWO-YEAR LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE

Pine Manor believes that a student well-grounded in the liberal arts
has the best possible preparation for further study
and for a rewarding life.

THE SUBJECT — SHAKESPEARE

PSYCHOLOGY

SOCIAL SCIENCES

Classes, both in the humanities and in the sciences
average fifteen to twenty students each.
Individual attention promotes good education.

NATURAL SCIENCES

PHYSIOLOGY

FRENCH

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Although the study of foreign languages is not required, three out of four students
take courses in French or Spanish.

All classes are conducted in the language being taught.
Modern techniques help to increase understanding and conversational ability.

LISTENING TO LANGUAGE RECORDS

The two French houses and a Spanish house,
where students and staff speak these languages constantly,
are unique among junior colleges.
Discussions and social activities
often include eminent foreign guests
and students from other colleges.

Pine Manor graduates may enroll in Third-Year-Abroad programs in Paris or Madrid.

DR. BORIS GOLDOVSKY.
DIRECTOR OF NEW ENGLAND OPERA THEATER

Distinguished people from many fields
come to the campus to give concerts, plays, and lectures.
Students have opportunities to talk informally with these guests.

DR. GERHARD SCHILLING.
SMITHSONIAN ASTROPHYSICAL OBSERVATORY

Recent speakers have included Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt; Richard Wilbur, winner of the 1957 Pulitzer Prize for poetry;
and William Frye, U.N. correspondent for the "Christian Science Monitor."
Such well-known musicians as pianist Leon Fleisher and Adele Addison, leading soprano of the New York City Center Opera Company, have given concerts;
and among other talented performers who have presented programs at the college
are the Dublin Players and the Mary Anthony Dance Theatre.

. . . IN THE STREAM OF MODERN THOUGHT

METHODIST BISHOP JOHN WESLEY LORD

Outside of class, students may pursue special interests . . .
working on college publications
or participating in musical, modern dance, or dramatic productions.
They may also join the International Relations Club,
the French and Spanish Clubs, the Religious Interest Group, the Outing Club, and several others.
